COLLEGE

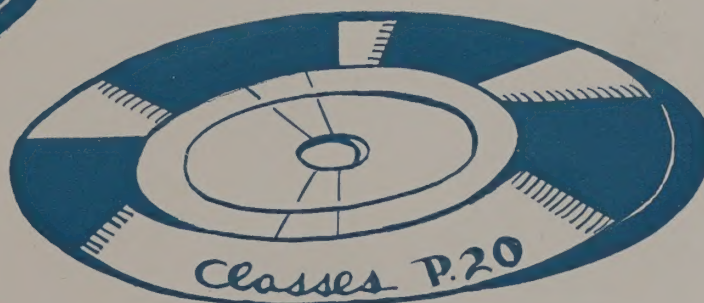

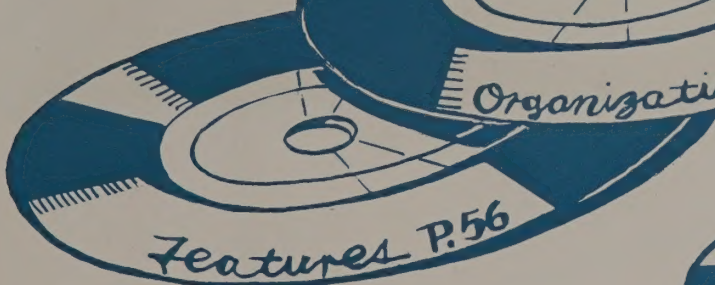

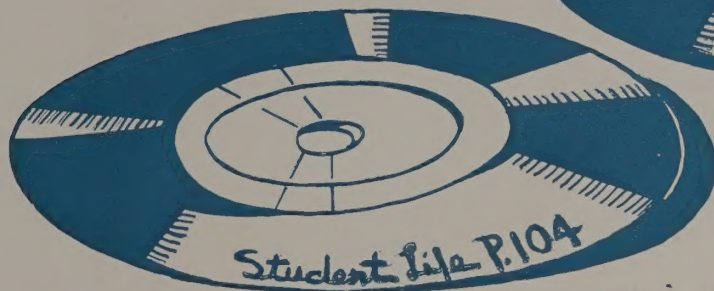

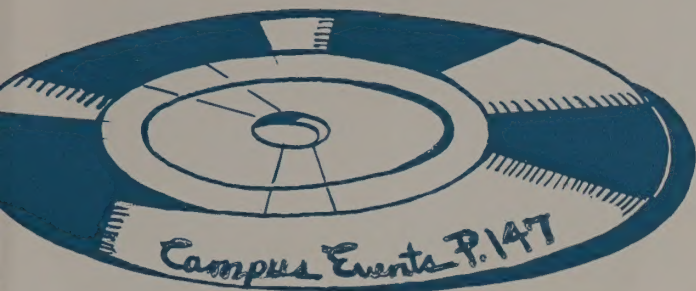

Foreword

The year, 1953-54, of college life at Lipscomb is rapidly becoming history in your life. So, as a record of remembrance, may we present to you this BACKLOG. As you turn through these pages, both now and in the years to come, it is our sincere desire that this book will not only bring to your memory the joys, the tears, the happiness, the heartaches, and disappointments, from the routine life to those most exciting moments, but will forever record upon the pages of your life the Christian principles and ideals for which your friends, your faculty, and this institution stand.

JOY ANDERSON, Editor

CAROLYN SCOBEE, Business Manager

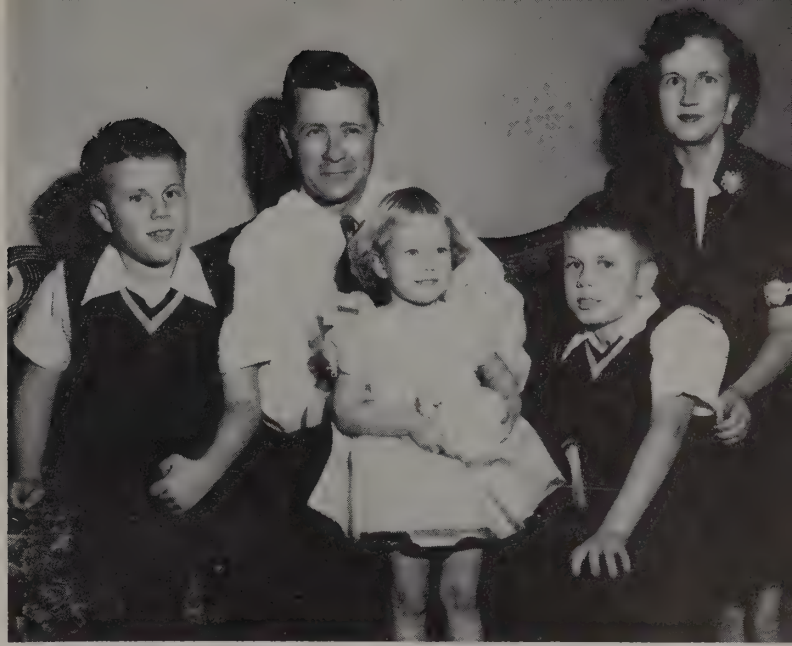

Dedication

In this book, we humbly and gratefully pay tribute to one, who, through the years, has been a living example in the hearts and lives of many young people. For his quiet spirit of meekness, patience, and kindness . . . for his sincere interest in every student . . . for his Christian ideals and principles at home, at work, and at play . . . for his unlauded years of service as teacher, coach, father, companion, and friend, it is with great pleasure, we, the BACKLOG Staff, and student body, dedicate this 1953-54 BACKLOG to our own loved and respected 'Fessor Gene Boyce.

Organizations

The student Guidance Service, now in its 2nd year is an organization developed to guide, counsel and aid the students in their life at college. Some of the outstanding services rendered are the vocational tests, remedial reading classes, and orientation program. To assist in the direction of the orientation program, outstanding seniors are chosen as group leaders.

Student Board

Tom Holland, President of Student Body

JoAn Holley, Secretary of Student Body

The Student Board, one of the most active organizations on the campus, serves as a medium to promote better student-faculty relations by trying to bring a mutual understanding of the students' problems, complaints, and needs, and by promoting school spirit. This board made up of various student leaders representing different student groups, meets each week with a representative of the administration, Vice-President Willard Collins.

Intercollegiate

Pat Wheeler is organizing material while Catherine Goodpasture presents the argument.

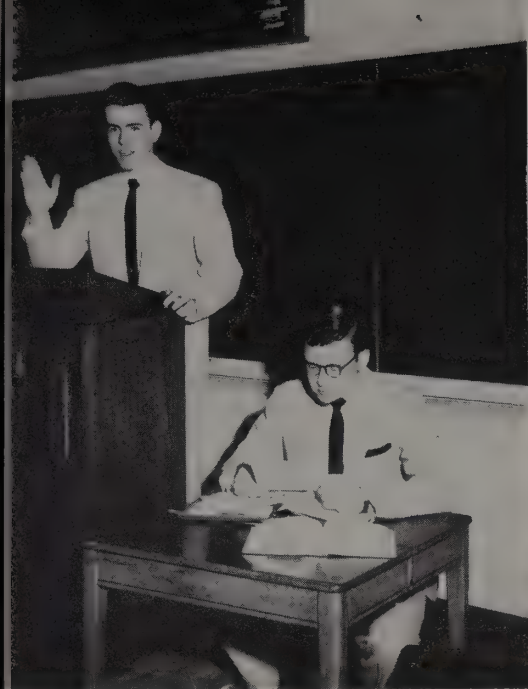

Ted Kell and Norman Trevathan collaborate during those last few minutes before their debate.

Clara Armstrong states the case as partner, Jane Shannon, agrees.

Bill Phillips and Wayne Tincher are working hard for that debate victory.

Robert McGowan and Phillip Morrison are expressing their joy over a successful debate just completed.

As Hope Camp concentrates on the next points to be given, Paul Rogers points out the main topic of their debate.

Chapel

Once a day the entire student body and faculty gather together in Alumni Auditorium to worship God and strive to draw nigh unto Him. This chapel service is one of the outstanding features of life at Lipscomb and stands high in the memory of those who attend.

Gus Nichols talks with Ersel Rigenbach after a meeting of the Monday night preacher's class.

During the winter quarter G. C. Brewer presented a week of lectures to the preacher's class.

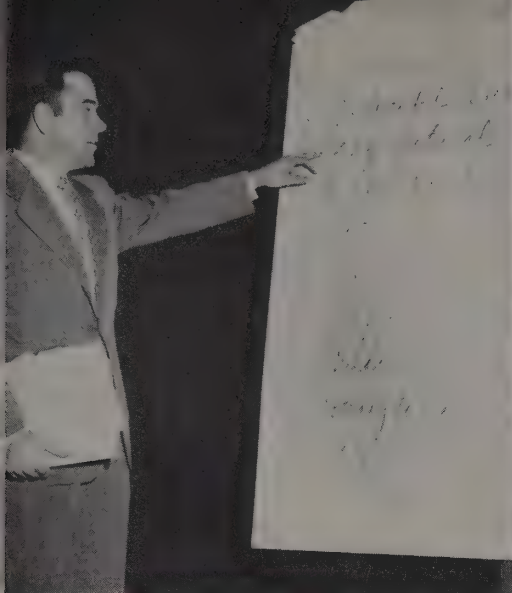

Carl Spain held the fall meeting on the Lipscomb campus.

The Bisons

The Bisons, with five returning lettermen of 1952-53, had a fairly good year. They started the season in high style, and though due to a losing streak they did not finish the season as well as they would have liked, the team showed outstanding spirit, good talent, and fine sportsmanship during the entire year.
